BURN PERMIT REQUIREMENTS

PROPERTY OWNER

PURPOSE:

To ensure that the legal property owner is aware of a controlled burn on their property.

This requirement also establishes the Fire District to obtain reimbursement from responsible individuals for the expenses of any emergency response and/or enforcement action by the Alpine Fire Protection District to protect the public from any fire that is out of control during an open burn.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. To qualify for a burn permit, you must be the legal owner of the property on which burning takes place.
2. If you are not the legal owner of the property, but are going to burn for the owner, you must bring with you a signed letter from the legal owner incorporating instructions below:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR LEGAL OWNER:

- A. Date of letter
- B. Legal owner's name & address
- C. Address where burning will occur
- D. Two contact phone numbers where you, the owner, can be reached during the burn hours
- E. A paragraph stating that the person who you name has your permission to burn on your property, and that you accept full responsibility for the burn if they should lose control of the fire
- F. Signature of legal owner

Note: In the case of someone working for you on your property through-out the year, you will need to write a letter naming each person for the burn period specified.

The person who you name in the letter should bring proper identification with them if they are signing the burn permit for you.
